Have The Allies Recaptured Dixmude?

LONDON, Nov. 13.—8-45 pm.—By Bulletin Lensed Wire—The correspondent of the Central News in North of France telegraphs that the Germans have been driven out of Dismude. "The Germans," he says, "had not long in which to congratulate themselves on their science of the mass of rains which is all that remains of the town of Dismude. They were sprayed with shrapped and high exploses until externination threatened them. The appearance of French marines with bayonets at charge rapidly convinced them the death rate would be too high if they remained. Hence Dixmude is ours again.

I decided to investigate and see if all you claimed for "Fruit-active" was true. Now, after heisig und see if all you claimed for "Fruit-active" was true.
